

PARADISE

Town & Country: The UK has Reopened to Vaccinated Travelers

New finds and Old Favorites in London and Beyond

If you've been itching to hop across the pond, now is your chance. The UK has finally eased restrictions for vaccinated U.S. travelers and the late summer-early fall brings some of the best weather conditions to the Big Smoke. Be prepared for an action-packed schedule from the world's most sought after sporting and cultural events to award winning restaurant and hotel re-openings, there are endless options for planning an upcoming trip to London. Here are over a dozen more reasons to book a flight from the world's best martinis to a new apartment hotel option with a gin distillery, it's a great time to be alive and experience this vibrant city.

Above: Richstone Templeton grounds

Historic Residential Rental

One of the most coveted historic private residences available for select private rentals in South West London, Richstone Collection's Templeton House is just a few minutes' walk from the famous 2,500-acre Richmond Park. This is a great option if you want to be on the outskirts of central London for a more bucolic vibe yet still very close to some of the top draws in the city. The property will organize entry to London's most recognized and sought-after events of the year which include Ham Polo Club to Wimbledon and London Fashion Week. The motto here is to celebrate life, reconnect with their friends and families, and experience the vibrant city of London.

<https://findyourparadise.co/town-country-the-uk-has-reopened-to-vaccinated-travelers/>